

Monty Henderson

Monty is currently a business advisor for the North Central Indiana Small Business Development Center. There, he works to assist small businesses to develop and grow. Prior to that, he was a regional economic development project director in North Central Indiana, writing and administering federal Economic Development Administration grants and promoting the region to site selectors.

He has been involved in local government for many years and has a passion for community and economic development. He also operates the family grain farm. Monty is a graduate of Purdue University (BS Ag Economics) and is working towards his master's degree in public administration at IUPUI.